IT WON'T HAPPEN TO ME. I WON'T FALL FOR IT.

Victims are not just the elderly. They are young people, job seekers, generous people. It could be any of us. Becoming a victim can be devastating! WFFCU wants to warn everyone of some recent scams that some of our members have experienced.

1. New Job! Used Indeed Job Search, found a great opportunity for a new business in our area. New Company mailed the member a check to buy computers, equipment, get car "wrapped," etc. Member spent money for the Company. Check came back as fraud. Member got stuck with the expenses.
2. Help with Hurricane! Company needed help accessing their money due to the hurricane. Company sent check to a kind member, member sent back money via the internet and bitcoin. Check came back as fraud. Member is out the money that was sent back.
3. Oh no, the IRS! Member received a call from someone claiming to be from the government and that taxes were past due. Member allowed caller to pull money from his debit card to pay the debt. The call was fraudulent. The money was gone.

Please be cautious. Remember that if something doesn't seem right, you can always hang up or walk away. Scammers often want you to make a quick decision without thinking about it. Slow down, do your own research about the offer or consult with someone you trust.
